

Serve others by donating to the 2019 WLG Influence Conference “Back to Work” Clothing Drive

This donation drive will benefit our friends at St. Joseph the Worker. We will be collecting the items listed below for individuals seeking to better their lives through quality employment.

ABOUT

St. Joseph the Worker provides employment services and professional clothing to men and women who are experiencing homelessness or poverty. By donating your unneeded work attire, you're creating empowerment, building confidence, and preparing job-seekers for a successful start in their career.
